

David F. Hopkins is the Steuben County's E911 Director. David has a Bachelor of Science Degree from Business Studies State University College at Buffalo.

David's began his career as varying operations management positions within Rochester Telephone, Rochester, NY. He was Operations Manager for Front Runner Network Systems, Rochester, NY; Deputy Director for Steuben County NY E911, Bath, NY; Project Manager Technology & Security Solutions, Tetra Tech Architects & Engineers, Ithaca, NY; and is now the present Director for Steuben County E911, Bath.

David is a member of the NENA NG911 data transition working group. Is an active member of the Association of Public Safety Communications Officials (APCO); and active member of the Steuben County Fire Chief's and Police Chief's Association; and Vice President of the NYS 911 Coordinator's Association; as well as a board member of the Southern Tier Network, Inc.