

Jim Osborn is the Disaster Recovery and Change Control Manager at The Guthrie Clinic. Prior to coming to Guthrie Jim has worked in both manufacturing and the financial industry since returning from active duty in the US Air Force. Jim served on active duty in the US Air Force for nine years, where he worked in Communication Security as well as a Technical Military Instructor among other positions.

Jim has been involved in the computing industry for the last 25 plus years. Jim is also responsible for the recovery of all critical computing systems for The Guthrie Clinic system.

Jim was born and raised in Sayre Pennsylvania and served on the Sayre Area School District Board of Education for 15 years, the last eight as the president of the board.