

Tim O'Hearn is the Schuyler County Administrator. Tim earned his Bachelors' degree in Public Administration from SUNY Empire State; and Masters in Public Administration from Binghamton University.

Prior to coming to Schuyler County, Tim was employed by the Susquehanna Valley CSD as a district administrator for 12 years. Concurrently he served as town supervisor for the Town of Conklin for 12 years and a town board member for 2 years prior to his election as supervisor.

During his tenure as Schuyler County Administrator he has led the development of a performance based budget and facilitated the formation of a Council of Governments. He coordinated the County's acquisition and development of a Human Services Complex which consolidates county office space while bringing human service agencies under one roof.

Tim continues to remain active with Binghamton University and serves as a member of the MPA advisory board and an adjunct professor.
